Maxtell Technology now offers two support options. Customers can now save by purchasing blocks of time for service calls and maintenance. Please examine the cost savings of time blocks over Per Instance Support in the examples below.

Per Instance Option

Example:

System Analysis - $119.99 1st hour + $79.00 each additional hour.

See our web site for additional information: http://www.maxtell.com/services_list.htm

If one job takes 2 ½ hours to analyze and correct, the total cost will be;

$119.99
79.99
+ 79.99
$279.97 + tax

If several calls per month are required or different issues arise this could be costly.

Time Block Options
